Patricia Meeks And Darrel Piepgrass United In Marriage

A very lovely Autumn wedding was solemnized in the Taylor Stake House Raymond on Wednesday October 21st when Patricia, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Meeks exchanged vows with Darrel Gordon second son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Piepgrass, all of Raymond. Bishop Golden Snow of the Fourth Ward officiated.

The bride was charming in a floor length, white nylon gown with nylon flounce embroidery. The net over jacket had long lily point sleeves and tiny self covered buttons to waist.

Her three-quarter length veil was held in place by a small bonnet type coronet, studded with tiny seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses tied with white satin ribbon in trailing design.

Dorothy Hall of Vancouver was Maid of Honor wearing a gown of powder blue taffeta with nylon net and crystal trim. Her bouquet was of red roses. Janice West and Gail Piepgrass were Brides Maids in nylon net dresses of blue and mauve and they carried a bouquet of pink carnations tied with satin ribbons to match their gowns.

Evan Piepgrass was his brothers Best Man, while Farrel Meeks and Kim Bullock were ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Mrs. Emma Dahl played the wedding music.

The wedding took place in the Stake House Relief Society Room, which was tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves, ferns, baskets of flowers, and the beautiful three tiered wedding cake placed on a Meeks family heirloom pedestal cake plate, and topped by a miniature Bride and Groom, in the presence of relatives and close friends.

At eight o'clock in the evening a reception was held in the Recreation Hall, when nearly three hundred friends called to extend their best wishes to the happy young couple.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Salmon and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Salmon.

The Wedding Party was joined by their parents Mr. and Mrs. Rex Meeks and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Piepgrass, also their grandparents, Mrs. Eva Terry, Mr. James Meeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piepgrass.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Meeks chose a taupe brown dress with lace trim, and Mrs. Piepgrass wore a rosebud pink crepe dress with lace trim, both were complimented by a red rose corsage.

Jane McMullin was hostess at the Luncheon Table, while Maxine Manchur looked after the Guest Book.

Karen McLean, Hiniha Iwassa, and Jackie Thomson, were servers.

Jane Woodhead, Joan Hickman, Eve line Heggie, Joyce Phillips, and Jean Cooper arranged the many lovely gifts. Working behind the scenes were, Thelma Turner, Avidla Heggie, Larce Dahl, Helen Babb, Irene Bowden and Mabel Salmon.

Wm L. Nalder was the jovial Master of Ceremonies to the enjoyable program which consisted of; a solo by Edwin Palmer of Taber, an uncle of the bride, "Through the Years", Jane McMullin gave an original reading, Larry Dahl rendered a saxophone solo accompanied by Emma Dahl "Beautiful Dreamer". A ladies trio from Lethbridge Muriel Terry, Winnie Strong, Edith Merrill and accompanied by Mrs. Posey, sang "Because". Kay Salmon sang a solo "My Beloved" the concluding number was a piano solo "Clare deLune" by Margaret Jacobs.

The Toast to the Bride was offered by the Master of Ceremonies, to which the groom graciously responded.

For her honeymoon trip to the USA including a visit to Portland, Oregon the bride changed into a wool suit of powder-blue, with jewel trim and navy accessories, topped by matching top coat and complimented by a red rose bud corsage.

Upon their return they will make their home in Raymond.

"Jacks" Again In Operation

On Sunday, October 19, Ray Depew Bert Powelson, John Laqua, Gerry Gibb, and Ira Bourne motored to Calgary to attend the annual meeting of the Alberta Amateur Basketball Ass.

They returned with the happy news that all the difficulties of the past have been cleared away and the Raymond Union Jacks are again a name to contend with in Alberta basketball (we all hope). The one condition attached to this is that the local organization repay $100 to the A.A.B.A. to compensate for a like sum the provincial group made good to Mr. Hudson of the B of M staff. Lyman Jacobs has also been re-instated.

The Jacks will play in both the AABA League and I.B. League this year. In Alberta League they will play against teams from Magrath, Cardston Lethbridge, Calgary, and Edmonton. The I. B. League has not as yet announced all the teams participating.

The first engagement announced by the local executive is for November 25th when the Harlem Clowns will play an exhibition game here. A tournament is being planned for Magrath in the near future as well.

The new executive of the AABA consists of Gordon Gregson and Rex Cahoun of Cardston as President and Secretary, respectively, Jarvis Miller of Calgary as Vice President and Emerson Blumel of Magrath as District Organizer.

Drills and Demonstrations Mark Fire Prevention Week

Fire Prevention was brought very much to public attention last week when the local Volunteer Fire Department carried out extensive Fire Drills.

On the first day of Fire Prevention Week they had a fire drill at the Public School and were very pleased with the orderly way in which the children evacuated the building, showing no sign of panic. About one and a half minutes after the alarm was sounded every child was clear of the building and two minutes later the firemen had water to battle the imaginary blaze.

It took about the same time at the drill held at the new High School the next day and on Wednesday it took about a half a minute longer to get water at the Junior High School.

The Provincial Hospital was the scene of the drill on Thursday with all the patients being cleared from the building in two minutes with the water taking just five minutes to get to the nozzles.

On Thursday evening two films on fire prevention were shown to a large crowd at the Stake House. Prior to the films Fire Inspector Leland of Lethbridge made a few comments pertinent to the subject. Mr. May, representative of the Fire Underwriters was also present.

At the Municipal Hospital on Friday the firemen demonstrated fire extinguishers to the nurses and showed them how to evacuate a patient on a mattress.

Saturday afternoon the Department staged a very interesting fire fighting display at the Town Park, just west of the skating rink. First they demonstrated the method of extinguishing a fire made of oil tins — both the spray nozzle and the straight stream were used on this fire.

The next target was a pit full of used oil that really blazed and threw off terrific heat. The spray nozzle is the only way this kind of a fire can be put out successfully. To do this two men carry the hose to the base of the fire with the nozzle set to send out a large spray. This acts as a coolant and a protection for the firemen and it envelops the flame as well. This can be an extremely hazardous operation but was carried out successfully by Grant Hall and Bill Hague, Frank Anderson and Ab Hague, Grant Hall and Jack McClean, Grant and Harry Hall, who drew applause from the crowd for their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawley Jr. of Barons, were Sunday visitors at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawley and family.

Mr. Don Rodeback has just returned from a ten-day visit to Salt Lake City while there he attended LDS Conference. He was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Burton of Cardston.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Hicken were Calgary visitors on Monday where Mr. Hicken attended an insurance convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley King entertained their Sunday Night Club last Sunday evening when the Howard Rasmussens and Arlidge Hills were special guests.

Mrs. Hazel McLean of Davenport Idaho is the guest of her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Watson.

Mrs. Harris Walker recently returned from Salt Lake, where she visited with her husband; reports that the Doc is enjoying his studies, is feeling very well and expects to be home for Christmas.

Mrs. Marlin Allred was a visitor to Cardston on Thursday where she attended a wedding of a niece.

Mr. Cecil Finch reports that he has heard from the Wildlife Bureau in Washington, D. C. about the banded duck he shot recently. It was banded at Hermiston, Umatilla County, Ore. on February 2nd, 1953.

Hall and Jack McClean, Grant and Harry Hall, who drew applause from the crowd for their efforts.

Raymond can and should be very proud of their Fire Fighters for they are a group of men who risk their lives to protect our property. They have got the business of fire fighting down to a fine art as the amazingly short time it takes them to get water on a fire indicates.

As a very fitting conclusion for Fire Prevention Week the Fire Brigade sponsored a Firemen's Ball at the Opera House on Saturday night with Jack Patey and his orchestra supplying the music. There were prizes galore for the spot and novelty dances and the firemen would like to extend their sincere appreciation to all merchants and individuals who contributed both merchandise and money. The grand prize of the evening was a Mixmaster that was won by Gary Christensen. A big crowd at the dance made it both financially and entertainingly a success. It is hoped that this dance will be made an annual event.

The men of the Fire Department are busy these days fixing up the main room of the old library as a sort of locker room for their equipment. They have put plywood around the walls and have lockers almost completed. New linoleum and a repaint job are also on the program.

Inspection of the business places has been carried out recently with most places being in good condition. The Department would like to inform the residents of Raymond that if requested to do so they would be happy to inspect any homes in town for fire hazards. Anyone wishing this should phone Bill Hague or Harry Hall.

Members of the Raymond Volunteer Fire Brigade are:

Bill Hague	Polly Hawkins
Harry Hall	Dee Rolfsen
Ab Hague	Cearsar LeCluse
Lowell Court	Lee Bullock
Grant Hall	Karl Wilke
Bill Mehew	Howie Klippert

With our hat off we make a deep bow in their direction.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hartland Stevens recently made a motor tour through what they term as some of Canada's most beautiful country. First going to Calgary and then on to Banff, Radium Hot Springs and Cranbrook. This was their first trip through this part of the country and they were really impressed.

Sherwin Nalder of Great Falls, Montana, was a week-end guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Nalder.

Mrs. Mary Heggie entertained about twenty ladies last Tuesday at a Tupper Ware Demonstration. The hostess served a very nice lunch.

Another Shooting Accident

Last Sunday afternoon 6 year-old Robert LeCluse was painfully wounded in an accidental shooting while playing with his dog in his back yard, and rushed to his side and found that Caesar heard the young fellow cry out he had been shot in the lower abdomen. He rushed the child to the hospital where the local doctors administered medical attention. The bullet missed all the vital parts of the body but if it had been an inch in any direction it could very well have been fatal.

Young Master LeCluse is now at home showing little or no effects of his experience.

Again carelessness with firearms has caused trouble in our community. Parents should take extreme measures to see that this sort of thing does not happen again.

Hospital Auxiliary Notes

The Raymond Hospital Auxiliary met at the hospital on Wednesday, with Mrs. Frank Hall in the Chair. Secretary Mrs. John Roberts read the minutes. There was little business to discuss owing to the absence of President Mrs. Parley Meldrum and Treasurer Mrs. Joe Flexhaug. Mrs. Meldrum is visiting in Vancouver and Mrs. Flexhaug is attending the Auxiliary Convention at Edmonton. She is accompanied by Mrs. Truman Holt.

A half a minutes silence was observed in memory of Man'l'a Meldrum.

Mrs. Reg Cooper gave a very interesting reading, the topic being Thanks giving. Roll call was also Thanksgiving Thoughts.

We are very pleased to accept Mrs. Hawk into the Auxiliary as a new member.

The meeting was adjourned after which a tasty lunch was served by hostesses Mrs. Mutt Ralph and Mrs. Athol Cooper.

Dorothea Roberts Sec.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Aileen to Royden Shurtz, son of Mrs. R. C. Shurtz, of Lethbridge. The wedding will take place in January in the Alberta Temple at Cardston.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woolley, and Mrs. Marie Strong attended their Sunday Night Club which was held in Lethbridge last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Helgeson have moved back to town from their farm near DelBonita.

Local Residents In Serious Car Smash-up

Wednesday afternoon at about 3:30 a car driven by Fritz Dahl, and carrying his wife Dorothy, Vanda Grey, and Stuart Card, was in a serious accident on the highway two miles south of Claresholm. Fritz was driving south behind another car and collided with a tractor driven by a 60 year old man who pulled onto the high way in front of him. The tractor was pulling a four-wheel trailer loaded with barrels of gas so Fritz didn't have a chance to go around on either side.

Mrs. Grey was the most seriously injured, suffering from a broken arm and leg (in two places) and a severe cut on her face. The shock and swelling are such that the doctors will not try to set her limbs until Monday. She was taken to the Claresholm Hospital by an RCAF ambulance and then transferred to the Galt Hospital in Lethbridge the next day.

Stuart Card suffered a dislocated shoulder and fractured ribs and fluid on his knees and after spending one night in the Claresholm Hospital, where his shoulder was fixed up he went back to Calgary where Mrs. Card was visiting with their son Booth and his family.

Dorothy was bruised and battered with a couple of cracked ribs and lacerations while Fritz is sporting two very black eyes. He was quite badly cut across the bridge of the nose by the sun glasses he was wearing and also several black and blue patches on his knees and chest.

Damage has not yet been estimated on the car but it is quite extensive. The best wishes of the community are extended to Mrs. Grey for her speedy and complete recovery.

The Readers Progress Club met at the home of Mrs. Elsie Mitchell.

The new executive went into office namely: Olive Fisher President, Viola Meeks Vice President and Dorothea Roberts as Secretary.

Irene Cooper reviewed the book "Time to Remember" the memoirs of Lloyd C. Douglas, and it was most enjoyable.

A delicious lunch was served by hostesses Elsie Mitchell and Olive Fisher.

LEST WE FORGET

The Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League is not solely a Social Club where returned Veterans may meet to reminisce. In the past years the Legion has forged ahead to become a strong influence for Veteran welfare, secondly for the security of Canada and thirdly for the principles of democracy. More a Service Club than a Social Club the League has adopted the Motto: "We Serve".

Raymond, too has its own Canadian Legion Branch, operating for many years under the leadership of such well known and respected citizens as Teddy Wagstaff, Lee Brewerton, Jack Mehew, Lowell Duncombe, Bill Witbeck, Paul Redd, Wilfred Meldrum, and Scotty Renton, but not until the year 1947 was the Branch able to commence the building of our first Memorial Hall, when the citizens of Raymond contributed so generously to the Building Fund started by the original veterans organization.

The Raymond Branch of the Canadian Legion has upheld the Legion Motto of Service and one of the important methods of obtaining funds for its welfare work is the annual sale of Poppies and wreaths. Through the past 25 years the Poppy Campaign has received the spontaneous endorsement of our citizens and this year we ask once more for your generous support.

Last year 5 million Poppies were distributed in Canada but we have over 14 million people in this great Dominion of ours. Won't you do your part to help us reach our objective: "A Poppy in Every Lapel"?

By the sale of poppies your branch in Raymond is able to assist in local welfare work. Any veteran in need—whether or not he is a member of the Legion—is equally eligible to benefit. The work done by the Legion may take many forms:

1. Aid to a disabled Veteran to provide his family with necessities of life
 2. Payment of hospital or doctor bill
 3. Aid to the dependents of those who died in the service of our country
- During the past 25 years their achievements are unequalled in the world. This year there is only one type of tag poppy and it along with the windshield or window Poppy will be sold on Poppy Day, November 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Deter Gehmlich have returned to their home in Salt Lake after a two weeks visit here guests of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gehmlich.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Michelson of Lethbridge accompanied by Karen McLean and Geraldine Kenney were visitors to Great Falls, Montana last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kinniburgh and small daughter of Purple Springs flew down here in their private plane on Sunday to visit her mother Mrs. Alice Court.

Reed Porter of Sacramento, Calif. has been the guest of his cousin Mrs. Ralph Meldrum and Mr. Meldrum and family.

Mrs. Ted Hocking of the Magrath district was a guest of Mrs. Fred Ralph one day last week.

Betty Evans, LaVon Depew, Beth Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keeler, Emma Dahl, Laverne Anderson, Mabel Heninger, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Holmes Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rolfsen, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stone and Jean and Joan Holmes were some more people from here who enjoyed the Celebrity Concert in Lethbridge this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Allred were recent visitors in Leth. Utah, where they attended a party and met many of their friends whom they had not seen for 50 years.

The Legion and The Poppy

The Dominion Branch of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. in Ottawa serve as a contact between the Veteran and the Federal Government and last year alone handled more than 25,000 cases. Many worthy Veterans hesitate to apply for assistance and many of them have twice worn the Queen's uniform, giving as much as ten years of their productive life to the service of our country.

We cannot possibly give as much as those who have given their lives or lost their loved ones. Make your donation more generous this year. If you have a wreath participate in the services by having a member of your family lay it on the Cenotaph in honor of our own local boys. Be sure to buy and wear a Poppy and join in our Memorial Services at the Cenotaph Wednesday November 11th at 10:45a.m.

The Poppy and the Legion! Representing sacrifice — service — undying faith and remembrance. The blood-red Poppy of Flanders which appears each year among the crosses extending now far beyond Flanders Fields, is our symbol of gratitude. Wear it Proudly.

Buying Furnishings:

We are cheating ourselves of many of the good products sometimes, because we choose through habit or sentiment. New things look funny. Today there are new materials used for furniture — plastic, metals, pressed plywood, and webbing and some of today's designs are very good. A chair, for example, designed by a good designer is made to suit the human shape. Above all it is comfortable and does the job we want. There are four questions we can ask ourselves about the chair, or any other piece of furniture, before we buy it.

- (1) What is its purpose and does it do the job I want it to do?
- (2) Do I enjoy its appearance?
- (3) Is it well made?
- (4) Is it worth the money?

If we ask ourselves these questions before buying a reading lamp, we would look for a shade that would give us a maximum amount of light. It would have a sturdy base — not heavy, unbalanced and overdecorated. There are many poor lamps on the market. You have seen the type with dancing doll for the base, and a bulb light balanced on her head. Usually the light is so low and the shade so small and ornamented, it cannot do the job we want it to do. If we have a sincere need for good light, we will avoid that type of lamp. Let us think more about our needs in the home and spend our money wisely.

Although the Gold Coast of Africa derives its name from the gold deposits found there, the value of the country's production of cocoa and diamond exceeds the value of gold produced.

Hand on hips, place one cup of flour on your shoulder, raise knees 1/4 tsp. baking powder, lower the legs and depress toes, mix thoroughly in and mash two hard-boiled eggs in a sieve; exhale, breathe naturally and sit in a bowl. Attention! Lie flat on the floor and roll in the whites of two eggs, backward and forward until it comes to a boil. In ten minutes remove from the fire and rub smartly with a rough towel. Breathe naturally dress in warm flannels and serve with tomato soup.

CANDY FOR MARY

By Madge O. Adams

THE folks in our town don't care too much for old John Franklin. He's never done much harm, but he's never been known to do much good either. I guess people feel that way about him because of the practical jokes he sometimes pulls. Otherwise he's harmless.

He batches in the little cottage his mother left him when she died and he fills it with fishing rods and coon dogs.

I don't suppose I'd have ever thought much about John either way if Mary Davis hadn't moved into town. We all watched her pretty close, especially the women. It wasn't because she was pretty, she was too hungry looking for that. But, after all she was a female and she was single and she could have been attractive.

Mary was a widow and she had three small children. She moved into the old house on the back of our lot that rented for practically nothing. She soon had the lawn neatly clipped and the windows shining and a back breaking garden planted.

We were soon charmed by Mary's warm smile and completely won over by her honest eyes. It wasn't long before almost everybody in town was thinking about a romance for Mary.

Bill Simpkins was the most logical man. He runs the general store. He was the most eligible young bachelor in town in his day. Mothers had sat up nights trying to think of ways to snare him for their daughters. I guess that was why he had never married.

He had a big pleasant house, a kind heart and a nice income. He was the perfect man for Mary Davis. Everybody in town agreed on that point.

There was only one hitch. He didn't know she existed. And if she thought anything about him, she never let on.

But there's always somebody who can figure out those kind of things. And it usually is somebody you'd never suspect. Leastwise, this time it was. Nobody ever knew about what really happened but me. I was in the candy store in Cedar City the day Old John Franklin bought a big box of candy. I was down at the far end of the counter and he didn't see me.

At the time I didn't think so much about it. I should have, I guess. John Franklin isn't the kind to buy a big frilly box of candy for anybody—except as a practical joke.

Well, that happened on Saturday. On Monday morning I was hanging out the clothes pretty early. It surprised me a little to see Mary streaking across her front yard trying to catch Bill Simpkins before he could drive off in his car. She was all smiles and flushes and she looked as pretty as could be right then. Of course I couldn't hear everything they said over the clothes line. But she explained the rest of it to me that afternoon when she came to borrow my steam iron to press her only good dress.

She said Bill had been so shy he had left the box of candy on her doorstep instead of giving it to her personally. She had run out to thank him that next morning. Now he had asked her to go to a movie this very night!

My guess was that he was too kind to tell her the truth and thought that by taking her out it would soften the blow if she ever discovered that somebody had played a joke on her.

Well, anyway, it wasn't long before he was taking her to the movies regularly. And the first thing we knew he'd bought a ring! Everybody in town was invited to the wedding.

I couldn't be sure about John Franklin until the day of the wedding. I kept wondering to myself, had he sent that big frilly box of candy to Mary as a practical joke or as a gentle nudge to Bill? But I had my answer when I looked into his face as Mary walked down the aisle. He was the most satisfied looking man in the church!

My mother used to say: You never know what a man's really like, underneath.

His talk was like a stream which runs With rapid change from rocks to roses It slipped from politics to puns; It passed from Mahomet to Moses.

The third grade was learning the letters of the alphabet. "What comes after T?" teacher asked Ella quickly replied, "V".

For safest results, bread stuffings for poultry or meat should be mixed immediately prior to use. A cleaned, stuffed bird should not be held longer than four hours before cooking. If any holding time is necessary, the stuffing should be chilled before use, and the clean stuffed bird refrigerated for the entire time of holding. Freezing of prepared stuffing is not recommended.

the "WINTERIZED"
Motor Oil

Marvelube 5W is especially made to be "fluid" at below zero temperatures. Not only does your engine turn faster—start easier, with less battery drain—but you reduce metal-to-metal wear during the critical warm-up period.

When weather turns warm there's no need to worry about engine protection because Marvelube 5W is processed to resist thinning.

Marvelube 5W is highly detergent, and is "tough" in every way. It fights low temperature corrosion which can be a serious cause of winter engine wear.

Use Marvelube 5W for trouble-free driving—longer engine life.

The Value of a Smile

A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive it, without making poorer him who gives it. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it may last forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it; none so poor but he can be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and is Nature's best antidote for trouble. It cannot be bought, borrowed, begged or stolen, and is of no value unless it is freely given away.

Small Ronald having arrived at the story telling age, his mother read to him every night. One evening she was unable to find the book, so entertained him with an account of her girlhood on the farm.

Ronald's eyes grew bigger and bigger as she told of wading in the pond going berry picking, and riding a real live horse. "Gee mom," he sighed wistfully, "I sure wish I'd met you earlier!"

If I had a million, I would quietly search for those elderly women, most of them mothers, who through no fault of their own, are obliged in their sunset years, to go out to work, washing, scrubbing, dusting the offices and homes of others.

These heroic souls who must earn their way to the end of the trail whose grey hair is the symbol of America's best women-hood, desire only the peace and contentment of a home, and freedom from worry, work and fear.

Water Helps Out

Here are some cold water tricks:

1. If you want to serve a jelly or cream in a large dish, it often slips to one side as you turn it out. But if you first rinse the serving dish with cold water, there will be no trouble for you can then move the jelly until it is straight without breaking it.
2. When you are dealing with fruit that is likely to stain your hands, rinse them afterwards in cold water without soap, before washing them in hot water, and the stains will come off much more easily.
3. Tea clothes will keep their whiteness better if you soak them first in cold water before washing them. The dirt will come out more easily and stains disappear.
4. Onions without tears — if you hold them under cold water while peeling them.
5. If you scrub white-wood boards with cold water instead of hot they will be whitened, whereas hot water discolors them.
6. A little cold water added to an omelet or a batter makes it lighter.
